Anti-Racism Grants 2023

What are the Anti-Racism Grants?

UNSW is committed to fostering a campus culture that promotes equity, diversity and inclusion. The Division of Equity Diversity & Inclusion (EDI) is proud to be offering four new anti-racism grants up to the value of $2,500 each to enable students and staff at UNSW to celebrate diversity and continue to improve our culture by bringing their ideas, events and activations to tackle racial discrimination, to life.

What are the criteria for assessment of grant applications?

Strong applications will:

- Align with EDI’s mission to instil equity, diversity and inclusion across the University and equip our community to contribute to a fair and just society
- Generate outcomes within the project implementation window (May – December 2023)
- Make a measurable difference
- Provide details of how the funds will be spent.

Grant Lifecycle:

- Grant Applications Open: Tuesday 21 March 2023
- Grant Applications Close: Friday 14 April 2023
- Grant Winners Announced: 24 - 28 April 2023
- Project Delivery: May - December 2023
- Final Report Due: January 2024
Guidelines for EDI Grants Program:

1. Student-led applications should ensure they are able to fit the time needed to deliver their project around their academic commitments prior to applying for the grant.
2. Staff-led applications should discuss their application with their line manager prior to applying for the grant.
3. A panel appointed by EDI will select the successful grant recipients.
4. The nature of the projects which may be undertaken with grant funding may include (but are not limited to) apps, videos, events, workshops, educational tools, etc.
5. Funds may be spent on goods and services such as printing, design, room hire, catering etc.
6. Travel and salaries will not be funded by the EDI Grants.
7. Any funds unspent by December 2023 will be returned to the Division of Equity Diversity & Inclusion.
8. Intellectual property created as part of the grant scheme will remain with the project owner.
9. A presentation on the project and its outcomes to the UNSW Equity Diversity & Inclusion Board, may be requested. This presentation can be pre-recorded if required.
10. The final written report will be due to the Division of Equity Inclusion & Diversity in January 2024 summarising the project, expenditure, its outcomes, highlights, including relevant photographs.
11. The Division may use these materials for future communications.
12. Extensions to the grant will not be permitted.
13. Applicants are encouraged to use inclusive language at all times. Please use the Diversity Council Australia Words at Work PDF as a guide.
14. On accepting a grant, applicants agree to have their photograph taken for the EDI website.
