A WEEK-LONG CELEBRATION OF INCLUSIVENESS

23 – 27 SEPTEMBER

Diversity Fest is a proud initiative of UNSW Division of Equity Diversity & Inclusion

WELCOME TO

DIVERSITY FEST 2019

Diversity Fest is a week-long celebration that brings students, staff and the wider community together to embrace diversity and ignite broader conversations for a more inclusive society, where everyone can participate. The inaugural festival boasts over 30 events across UNSW Sydney from panel talks and workshops to film screenings, music performances and social gatherings. Experience a week of learning, entertainment and enlightenment centred on the core focus of lifting diverse voices up and celebrating what unites us.

GAME CHANGERS

DIVERSITY IN SPORT MATTERS

Sport-related incidents have ignited debates on homophobia, religious freedom, casual racism in Australian culture, disability inclusion, gender pay gap and more.

Join ABC Breakfast's Paul Kennedy interview UNSW's guest speakers:

Dylan Alcott, Ellia Green, Sharni Layton and Casey Conway, as they boldly address issues concerning gender, sexuality, disability and racism in the world of sports and what needs to change in our society.

STEP ASIDE

DIVERSE LINE UP OF MUSICIANS

TAKE CENTRE STAGE

Witness local talents put on a glass ceiling smashing show at UNSW's award-winning Roundhouse. A night of music, energy and colour to celebrate what diversity brings to the music industry with performances by: Laura Jean, Sports Bra, Rainbow Chan, EGOISM and DJ Gen

Collier, as they mix musical sounds from acoustic folk, pop and punk to dreamy bitter-sweet beats and uplifting dance tunes. Stepping beyond gender, music has the power to bring us together as a community, despite our differences.
